APEC - Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation

<http://www.apecsec.org.sg/>

Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) was established in 1989 in response to the growing interdependence among Asia-Pacific economies. Begun as an informal dialogue group, APEC has since become the primary regional vehicle for promoting open trade and practical economic cooperation. Its goal is to advance Asia-Pacific economic dynamism and sense of community. Despite the financial instability of 1997-98, the Asia-Pacific remains one of the fastest growing regions in the world. It is a major contributor to global prosperity and stability. Today, APEC includes all the major economies of the region and the most dynamic, fastest growing economies in the world. APEC's 21 member economies had a combined Gross Domestic Product of over US$16 trillion in 1998 and 42 percent of global trade. Brunei Darussalam is the APEC Chair for the year 2000.
